Almond Parfait

- 300g Almond Slices
- 800ml Warm Water
- 2Pcs White Eggs
- 30g Crystal Sugar

Poached Asian Pears

- 250g Asian pears, cored and quartered
- 25g ginger, thinly sliced
- 1 Pcs vanilla bean, split and scraped, pod reserved

- 200g brown sugar
- 800ml water
- 50g edible bird nest
- 5g Kichi
- 50g Chinese dates

Methods and Directions

DUO ALMOND AND PISTACHIO MILK PARFAIT

Almond Parfait

- Soak almond slices in cold water and place in the chiller overnight.
- The next day, strain the almond slices and place in blender.
- Add enough warm water to cover the almond slices and blend until smooth.
- Then gradually add the rest of the water, blending for another 2 minutes.
- Filter the mixture through the cheese cloth.
- Bring to boil on medium heat, snip the dates with scissors and add into almond milk with crystal sugars and kichi.
- Simmer on low heat for 10-15 minutes.
- Lightly beat the egg whites and pour into the almond milk.
- Lightly stir to loosen, turn off the heat immediately.
- Place the almond parfait into glass/cup and keep refrigerated overnight.
- Keep the Chinese dates and kichi aside for garnish.

Poached Asian Pears

- Bring ginger, vanilla seeds and pod, sugar and water to a boil in a small saucepan for 3 minutes.
- Pour mixture over pears.
- Press a piece of parchment paper directly on surface and refrigerate until cold.
- Garnish the almond parfait with edible bird nest, kichi, Chinese dates and poached pears.
